1. Compendium, Version 2.0.2 (September 2017)
(pages 11/22/17)

Version 2.0.2 incorporates all changes made since the initial draft version issued in 2006, including all changes made with Version 1.1, the 2015 Interim Clause Set, Version 2.0, and Version 2.0.1. It also includes the Inter Investment Act clauses, the Open Trade Act clauses, and Clause No. 2407-1, Questions from Officers - Amendment (June 2017), as well as Appendix CC, Drafting Solicitation Amendments for GSA (July 2017).

Attached please find the following:

- Procurement Compendium, Version 2.0.2 (September 2017) in PDF format
- Table of Clauses (September 2017) in MSWord format for non-SCES users (SCES Users - see note below)
- Table of Clauses - Redline from v2.0.1 to v2.0.2

Forms: Forms appearing in the Compendium's appendices are separately posted on this page in MSWord and PDF format under the heading Forms.

SCES Users: Effective September 11, 2017, the contents of this version parallel the contents of the database used by SCES to generate solicitations using Document Builder. Document Builder must be used to generate every solicitation, including any amendments that contain standard clauses or provisions. The version of the Table of Clauses posted below in MSWord is provided to facilitate use of Compendium clauses by non-SCES users. NOT to facilitate the use of clauses by cutting and pasting. When adding clauses (e.g., user-selected clauses), all SCES users should do so using the Document Summary tab in document builder. This is the only way to insure you have the latest version of a clause and the only way for user-selected clauses to be automatically added to your Additions-generated table of contents.

This site includes all statewide term contracts available for use by all state agencies as well as contracts awarded by the Procurement Services of an individual agency.

Under state procurement law, individual agencies have authority to conduct some procurement activity, typically for smaller purchases. Current contracts are not part of this database because not all agencies have transitioned to the S-C Enterprise Information System. If you cannot find your are seeking or have other questions, please call (853) 737-0600 for more information.

Public sector buyers are reminded that not all contracts listed on this site are available for all governmental entities.
